MOSTLY YELLOW

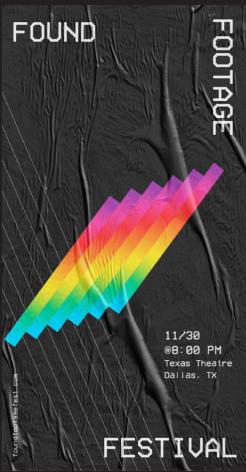

YOU ARE A CLASSIC CREATOR

You see graphic design as a historic art form and play strictly by the rules. In your freetime you love to read The Crystal Goblet or hang with Doug Scott. When working at your studio desk it is covered in calligraphy pens, letterpress misprints, and don't forget: everything must be color-coded and organized alphabetically.

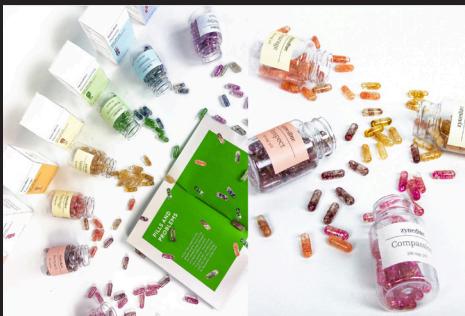

MOSTLY BLUE

YOU ARE A GRID BREAKER

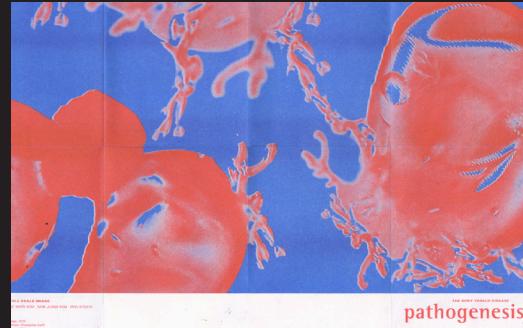

In your mind, any prompt requirement is merely a suggestion. You question every design choice and your happy place is one where you can sit back and curate your Are.na account with Paul Soulellis. Your life motto is: "Cancel the Cannon, Kill Eurocentrism."
